JAUNITA BARKLEY

Wallace, Va.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

"Nita" is known to us by her pleasant smile and sparkling blue eyes. We hate to see her leave us, but know whatever she attempts will be successful, for how could it be otherwise, with such a personality as hers.

MENTORA BELLAMY

Abingdon, Va.

1924-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Member of Y. W. A.; B. Y. P. U.; Curry Club; Duke Club; Harrisonian Literary Society.

It's not because you're jolly,
And never a trifle blue;
It's not because your words
Are never slow and few;
But the reason we all love you
Is just because you are you.

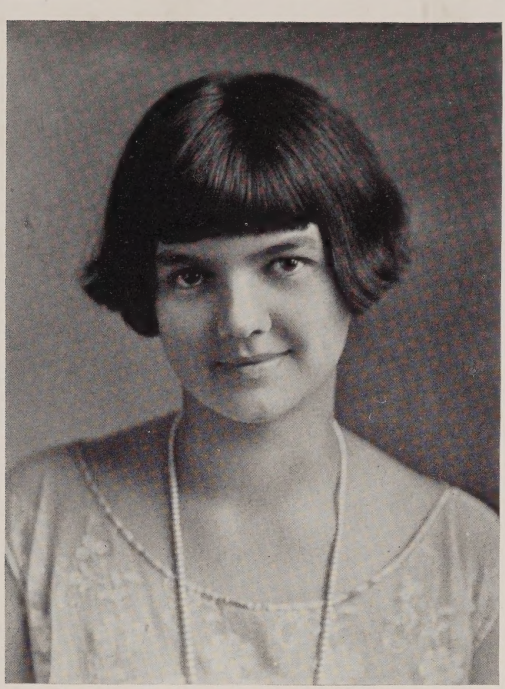
FRANCES BURNETTE

Leesville, Va.

1922-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Secretary-Treasurer of Athletic Association, Athletic Editor of "Cauldron"; Member of Y. W. C. A.; Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. A. Council; B. Y. P. U.; Gleam Followers' Band; Curry Club; Senior basket-ball team.

"Frank" is one of Intermont's best all-round girls. She is a good student, earnest and sincere. Possessing a versatility and a genial nature, "Frank" is found by popular choice in the front ranks of all college activities.



RUBY CAMPER

Buchanan, Va.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Vice-President of B. Y. P. U.; Member of Y. W. A. Council; Hikers' Club; Harrisonian Literary Society; Athletic Association; Gleam Followers' Band; Literary Editor of Annual.

Ruby! Her name suits her exactly for she is a jewel. She never shuns any responsibility, and this young lady, in spite of her apparent quietness, is a mighty good buddy and friend.

ANNA CATES

Bristol, Va.

1924-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

One of the most genial members of the class is Anna Cates. She possesses that rare quality of being the same whenever you see her. Always friendly, always happy, and at all times interested in others, she has won the admiration of all her classmates.

MALLIE CODY

Sassafras, Ky.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Chairman Personal Service Y. W. A.; Secretary of B. Y. P. U.; Member of Athletic Association; Kentucky Club; Harrisonian Literary Society; Glee Club.

To those who value friendship, Mallie is very dear, for she is dependable, true and loyal. Here are our best wishes to you, Mallie, as you go forth to your work in the field of teaching.

RUTH COFFEY

Boone, N. C.

1924-'25 DIPLOMA IN PIANO

Glimpses of Ruth are all we had until she received the prize for the best essay on the "Life of Lincoln". Retiring, quiet and silent, it is hard to know what a genius she is going to be in later life.

MARY COLEMAN

Lynchburg, Va.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Member Executive Board, two terms; Y. W. A. Council; Eoline Literary Society; Athletic Association; Curry Club; Hikers' Club; Vice-President Tau Kappa Nu.

Mary was our dainty, picturesque, little lady—and now, behold! A "flapper". She is one of the brightest stars in twenty-five's constellation—why is she a star? Because of her super-excellent ability at anything she attempts in the fields of history, student government, and, most of all, English.

VIRGINIA COFER COLLINGS

Crewe, Va.

1923-'25 — Diploma in Voice

1924-'25—Music Editor of Annual; Member of Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Eolin[illegible] Literary Society; Glee Club; Director of "Hill Serenaders"; Music B. Y. P. U.

Virginia is the unusual. She possesses all the originality to make her a distinctive type. Always different in dress and in those charming mannerisms that have won her hosts of friends. We're glad she'll have to say she's from Intermont 'cause she's the kind of a girl any school would be proud to own.

May her life be a happy one!

ALMA CONNELLY

Bristol, Va.

1919-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—President of Harrisonian Literary Society; President of Sigma Delta Phi; Senior Class cheer leader; Domestic Science Editor of Annual; Member of Athletic Association.

Alma Connelly! What new girl was not familiar with that name the very first day of school! Not a one. She made them feel at home and her happy personality dispelled many a homesick feeling. Yes, Alma is a good friend thru and thru—one on whom you can depend. She is one of those happy mortals who is the hub around which a wheel of friends revolves, ever trusting in her stability.

FRANCES V. COX

Independence, Va.

1923-'24 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Joke Editor of the Annual; Member of Y. W. A. Council; Hikers' Club; Athletic Association; Harrisonian Literary Society; Delta Phi Omega; Senior Basket-ball Team.

When a good time is mentioned who is always ready to take part? Why, "Frank" of course! But she has her serious side, too, although it reminds one of "April showers" in that the sun predominates.

LEONE DANIEL

Deltaville, Va.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. A.; Y. W. C. A.; B. Y. P. U.; Gleam Followers' Band.

She's full of life
She's full of fun;
There can't be many
(We doubt if there are any)
Who can beat this one.

All who know Leone love her for her jolly spirit. Her good humour and witty remarks always drive away even our gloomiest thoughts.

SUZANNE DAUPHIN

Queens, L. I., N. Y.

1922-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Business Manager of Annual; President Hikers' Club; Secretary of Student Government; Secretary Kappa Omega; Member of Student Christian Council; Eoline Literary Society; A. A.; Vice-President New York Club.

It's hard to be cheerful when the world goes wrong,
It's hard to make good grades all the time,
It's awfully hard to keep drudgin' along,
It's hard to keep smiling in just any ole clime.

It's not easy to make friends by the score,
And there're not many people who really can,
But here's one who can do these and many things more,
We all know her as our dear Suzanne!

BETTY DOUGLAS DAVIDSON

Gate City, Va.

1922-'23 and 1924-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Member of Y. W. A. Council; Assistant Editor-in-Chief of Annual; Secretary of Harrisonian Literary Society; Member of Executive Board; Glee Club; Delta Psi Omega; Hill Serenaders.

She is just the kind of a girl that the name "Betty" suggests, sweet, friendly, sometimes rather dignified, tho always ready for a good time, one always good to do her part in everything. The wisest kind of a friend to have is one who is always sweet, understanding and cheerful and that's what Betty is.

MARY DAVIS

Alexandria, Va.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—President of the Senior Class of '25; President of Eoline Literary Society; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet Member; Curry Club; Athletic Association; Kappa Omega.

She's clever, she's peppy, she's full o' fire;
When you're blue, she'll lift you out o' the mire;
She lives her joys, her sorrows, too;
She's the girl that will gladly share them with you;
Of "Soul Mates" like her, there are only a few.

LOIS DICKERSON

Kenbridge, Va.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Vice-President Harrisonian Literary Society; Member of Kappa Chi; Executive Board; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Y. W. A. Council; Athletic Association.

The knowledge we gained while with her will fade as the years go by but friendship's link will never break, so—

Here's to Lois—the truest pal a girl ever had. May life give her the best of good things.

LUCILLE DUDLEY

Appomattox, Va.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—President of Student Government Association; Correspondent for "Baptist Student"; Social Chairman of B. Y. P. U.; Circle Leader Y. W. A.; Secretary-Treasurer of Student Volunteer; House President of Main Building; Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Students' Christian Council; Glee Club; Athletic Association.

We have had an opportunity to appreciate Lucile's ability in many activities and can never forget the efficiency with which she accomplished everything she attempted. She has made the finest "President" possible. Her dependability, fairmindedness, and friendliness have made her a favorite with both faculty and students. She is just the "sort" of girl who always makes good.

ELIZABETH EARLY

Wolftown, Va.

1921-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—President of the Delta Tau; Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. A.; Athletic Association.

She is pretty to walk with, witty to talk with, and pleasant to think on, too.

Here's to Elizabeth, friend so true,
Friends like her are all too few.
A friend to have and a friend to hold—
To love and cherish when life grows old.

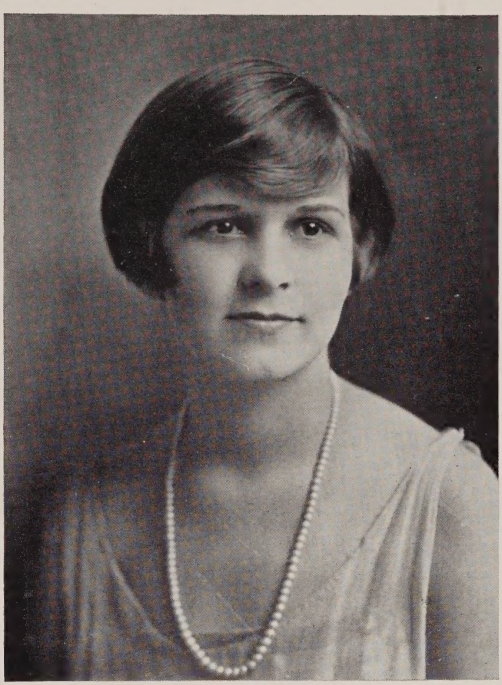
ELIZABETH FLEET

Glen Allen, Va.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—President Y. W. A.; Member of Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Harrisonian Literary Society; Hikers' Club; Representative W. M. U. Meeting; Norfolk, Va.; and Student Conference, Richmond, Va.

"Lib" is neither "A Comedy of Errors" nor "A Midsummer Night's Dream"' but take it "As You Like It", she is just what she seems. Happy when she should be, yet serious too, a jolly good sport who is a friend true blue.



MARGARET GRIFFITH

Gulfport, Miss.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—President of Y. W. C. A.; President of Sigma Tau Sigma; Member Student Christian Council; A. A.

If true friendship consists of kindness, loyalty, a readyness to help and lead on, honesty in everything, surely "Bobby" is a friend worth having. So, "Bobby," here is our parting wish—

May health, happiness and success follow you still
When you go forth to strive for your ideal.

LOIS HALE

Independence, Va.

1923-'25 — Voice Diploma

1924-'25—Member of Eoline Literary Society; Glee Club; Delta Psi Omega; Athletic Association.

In speaking of our little Lois, we can truly say, "Never was so rich a gem set in less than gold". She is very musical; a young lady with an adorable disposition and winning personality. Lois, little pal, we all love you dearly and will never forget you. Whatever course you may choose henceforth, we know you will succeed.

ELIZABETH HITE

Virgilina, Va.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Member of Y. W. C. A.; B. Y. P. U.; Y. W. A.; Gleam Followers' Band; Athletic Association; Harrisonian Literary Society.

One of the thinking minority who peruses French, German and Latin with as much enthusiasm and facility as the rest of us the latest fiction. The embodiment of work, sincerity, courage and altruism—she is genuine and generous.

LUCILLE HOLLOMAN

Victoria, Va.

1924-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Member Harrisonian Literary Society.

Yes, "'Cille" does look calm and composed, but behind that serene expression lies the keenest of perceptions, the liveliest of spirits and the most decided opinion on every subject from English VI to Student Government.

ALBERTA HUDGINS

Richmond, Va.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—President of Gleam Followers' Band; Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Board Christian Students Council.

Here is one of the most faithful and capable girls we have and we love her.
"So, Alberta, here's to you!
Health, happiness and success!"

THELMA JOHNSON

Welch, W. Va.

1923-'25 — Voice and Violin Diploma

1924-'25—Exchange Editor of "Cauldron"; Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Executive Board, Glee Club; West Virginia Club; Hill Serenaders.

Here is Thelma, a girl from Welch, West Virginia—but then we won't hold that against her. She is a conscientious student and always does her part in our activities. Her sense of humor, wholesome character and loyalty to her friends give her a position of esteem and admiration.

HAZEL KISER

New Freedom, Penn.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'1925—President B. Y. P. U.; Treasurer of Y. W. C. A.; Member of Y. W. A.; Harrisonian Literary Society; Duke Club; Hikers' Club; Senior Basket-ball Team.

You will find her in the joke,
You will find her in the game,
You will find her at her duties,
But wherever you find her
You will find her just the same—
An all-round girl.

EVELYN JEFFERSON LLOYD

Dover, Ky.

1923-'25 — Concert Diploma in Voice

1924-'25—Member of Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Eoline Literary Society; Athletic Association; Glee Club; S. T. S.; Kentucky Club.

True and sincere, equal and kind—
Another just like her you'll never find.

Just our old "Ebbie". To know her is to love her and she has won her place in the hearts of all. We hate to see her leave V. I., but our loss is the world's gain, especially her beautiful contralto voice. "Ebbie" is a friend and pal worth knowing and our hearty wishes for the best of success and luck go with her.

ALICE McKEE

Saltville, Va.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—President of Student Government; Vice-President of Y. W. A.; President of Student Christian Council; Member of Harrisonian Literary Society.

While thinking on thee, dear friend,
All losses are restored and sorrows end.

That's not exaggerated either, because she's the best ole pal ever. Just go to Alice when you're lonesome and blue. First, she'll sympathize with you, then she'll tell you about somebody or something funny at V. P. I., and you leave all "cheered".

MARY McNEIL

Montgomery, Ala.

1922-'23 and 1924-'25 — Diploma in Piano

1924-'25—Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; A. A.; Duke Club.

Another quiet and retiring girl, you will say. Nevertheless when you pierce that mask of hers you find friendship worth having.

MAXIE MARRS

Dungannon, Va.

1922-'25 . . HOME ECONOMICS DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Hikers' Club; Athletic Association.

To know her better is to love her more.

Maxie is true blue thru and thru—and when she's your friend you have found in her everything that makes friendship beautiful.

MARY FRANCES MARTIN

Sulphur, Ky.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Editor-in-Chief of Annual; Member of Eoline Literary Society; Kentucky Club; Athletic Association; Hill Serenaders.

Was there ever one "Frankie" couldn't answer? No. She's an all-round girl; to the point in everything she undertakes. She possesses all those gems which constitute a noble character and above all, she's

True blue—
A "Kentuckian"
Thru and thru.

FRANCES MOORMAN

Bristol, Va.

1924-'25 CONCERT PIANO DIPLOMA

A very demure young lady, quiet and thoughtful, yes, but beneath this calmness lies that spark of knowledge which always bursts into flame whenever the opportunity presents itself. Here's hoping you'll rapidly reach the summit.

DALLA OSBORNE

Mouth of Wilson, Va.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Class Historian; Member Harrisonian Literary Society; Athletic Association; Hikers' Club.

Many good things may be said of Dalla. We know she has some distinctive ambition for which she works so diligently. We have learned to love and admire her for the desirable qualities she possesses: knowledge, ability, earnestness, cheerfulness and love.

ELEANOR PEDDIE

New York, N. Y.

1923-'25 — Piano and Voice Diploma

1924-'25—Business Manager of V. I. "Cauldron"; Class Prophet; Under Graduate Representative of Y. W. C. A.; Member of Glee Club; Harrisonian Literary Society.

Those who know Eleanor have found her to be one of the hardest workers in her classes. Whenever there is work to be done and a clear-thinking person needed, she can always be relied upon to do her part. All who know her will readily agree that she is one of the sweetest, finest and most lovable girls Intermont has ever known.

ROSE POTEET

Roanoke, Va.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Vice-President Senior Class; Club Editor on Annual Staff; Member of Athletic Association; Harrisonian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Delta.

Who does not know and love "Petite"? She has smiled and snuggled her way into all our hearts—and claimed a very special place there.

She's all for fun and yet she's a good student. A rather curious combination ——but anyway we'll never forget Rose.

FRANCES ROBERT

Norfolk, Va.

1923-'25 — Piano Diploma

1924-'25—President of Athletic Association; Athletic Editor of Annual; Member of Eoline Literary Society; Beta Nu; Senior Basket-ball Team.

In the spring a young girl's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of basket-ball.

Folks, you'll all agree that "Frank" is a dear and everybody is wild about her. But, she says her requirements of a husband is that he must be a good dancer. We predict that Dan Cupid will mold her future plans.

MARY FRANCES ROYSTER

Henderson, Ky.

1918-'25 ART DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Art Editor of Annual; President of Palette and Brush Club; Vice-President of Sigma Delta Phi; Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Kentucky Club; Athletic Association; Senior Class Poet.

True to herself, to her friends and to her duty—that's "Mary Frank". And it makes her the most loyal Intermont girl, the most willing helper and the best old pal we know! For the future we wish her success as an artist or—the queen of a heart.

MARGARET RUE

Follansbee, W. Va.

1923-'25 — Domestic Science Diploma

1924-'25—Vice-President of W. Va. Club; Secretary-Treasurer of Hikers' Club; Home Economics Editor of "Cauldron" Staff; Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Art Club; Y. W. A.; Gleam Followers' Band; Athletic Association.

"Peggy," with her sweet disposition and winsome ways is loved by all who know her.

She manages to get through her classes and join in all the fun going on, too.

Here's to a bright and happy future for her! Especially as a fine cook can we recommend her.

RUTH SMITH

Big Stone Gap, Va.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Executive Board; Kappa Omega; Treasurer of Senior Class.

Taking it all in all "Ole Ruth" is plenty sweet. But that isn't saying enough, for she has a most charming personality. Everyone knows what an adorable "little buddy" she is.

MARY KATE SPAHR

Benhams, Va.

1923-'25 — Literary and Piano Diploma

1924-'25—Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Athletic Association; Hikers' Club; Y. W. A.; Gleam Followers' Band; Executive Board.

She is versatile, talented, analytical, critical and has a keen sense of humour. Her friends are watching her with an eager interest, feeling that she will reach the heights and win honors, not only for herself but for her Alma Mater.

VIVIAN SPENCE

Glade Springs, Va.

1923-'25 LITERARY DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Society Editor of Annual; "Little Store" Manager; Member of Harrisonian Literary Society.

Steady, reliable, willing and always ready to help others, that's Vivian. Giving the best of herself to everything. She is a splendid "Little Store" manager and will make an excellent partner in any business.

ALICE STREET

Appomattox, Va.

1923-'24 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Secretary of B. Y. P. U.; Member of Harrisonian Literary Society; Y. W. A.; Gleam Followers' Band.

She is fair and modest, will radiate gentleness and reign by love.

Sweet, demure Alice is the pride of our hearts and the ideal of our lives. We know that she will succeed in her chosen work and we will ever keep the memory of her in our hearts.

EVELYN WESBTER TAYLOR

Hamburg, N. Y.

1923-'25 SECRETARIAL DIPLOMA

1924-'25—Assistant Business Manager of Annual; Secretary of Senior Class; Treasurer of Eoline Literary Society; Vice-President of Athletic Association; President of New York Club; President of Kappa Omega; Social Chairman of Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Member of Basket-ball Team.

"Bobs" is truly a child of the gods, for they have lavished their gifts upon her. That these gifts have been used wisely by our little (?) Yankee classmate may be gathered from the above inscriptions.

"At parties, basket-ball and gym, she has always reached the top." Her pet hobby is collecting scalps, and every time she spends the week-end away from Intermont, she returns with several captive hearts. In spite of this cruel streak in her, she is a sweet and charming R. H. M.

CONCHA TRELLES

New Orleans, La.

1923-'25 — Literary Diploma

1924-'25—Vice-President of Kappa Omega; Member of Eoline Literary Society; Senior Basket-ball Team.

When she first came to us we only knew her as the "Little Spanish Girl", but later we knew her better and loved her as "Connie". She has proven to us all her ability for making good grades and also in playing basket-ball on the Senior team. "Connie" has only been with us this one year but in that time she has made many friends who have only the heartiest of best wishes for her happiness and success in future years.

DOROTHY WHITEHEAD

Chatham, Va.

1923-'25 — Expression Diploma

1924-'25—President Eoline Literary Society; Expression Editor of Annual; Curry Club; Athletic Association; President Beta Nu.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that Miss Dorothy Whitehead has successfully finished her course at Virginia Intermont College, and in witness thereof, we wish to present her with this slight token of our love and admiration for one who truly deserves them. We are sorry to see her go, but we anticipate the joy that will come to us in future years when we hear of her triumphs, for we expect great things from our "Hedvig". Of her it can truly be said:

Her air had a meaning, her movements a grace;
You turned from the fairest to gaze on her face;
And when you had once seen her eyes and mouth
You saw as distinctly her soul, and her truth.

Class History

1921

A class of little high school girls
Came to V. I. C.
Little freshmen all were they,
As green as green could be.

Some of them were stupid,
And some of them were bright,
But only four of them returned
To finish out the fight.

1922

These four little maidens,
In the fall of '22,
Were found right in their places,
With sixteen classmates new.

Then troubles kept increasing,
And as the year rolled by,
A number of these maidens
Departed with a sigh.

1923

Eighty-six bright Juniors,
In September, '23,
To Intermont came flocking,
As eager as could be.

With two long years before them,
They knew that they must work,
For no diploma is in store
For those who like to shirk.

So first they chose their colors,
Bright gold and turquoise blue,
And to their Alma Mater
They vowed allegiance true.

Then to "Math" IV and History,
They turned their eager eyes,
With languages they struggled,
And daily grew more wise.

1924

And in the fall of '24,
As Seniors they returned;
In numbers fully forty-eight,
With dignity well earned.

The class at once was organized,
With Davis president,
And then they settled down to work,
Upon more learning bent.

All was not toil, however,
Throughout the last long year;
There were parties, games and feasting,
And many an hour of cheer.

And now their days are numbered,
And soon, too soon, alas,
The class of 1925
Into history will pass.

Class Poem

Up the stairs of tomorrow—
With the promise of life's brighter years,
We climb thru the dust and cob-webs
Of yesterday's joys and tears.

We've trudged thru these halls of learning,
Dragging our specials and "Lits",
Stealing some fun in between times,
And feeding on bacon and grits.

But now we have reached the exit,
We stand with backward looks;
One hand clasping the latch of life,
The other caressing our books.

But the time has come to leave them,
College books stay behind,
And we'll take up the ponderous volume
Life has planned for us to find.

So, farewell, Alma Mater,
Fond memory will keep
Thy watch fires ever burning
In our heart's recesses deep.

—Mary Frances Royster.

Senior Song

Tune: "Tech Triumph"

Just watch our team so quick and active!
Support the blue and the gold.
Let's go, girls, we know our guards, they are the stronger;
With winning hopes we fear defeat no longer.
Just watch our forward pitch the goals, girls,
Determine now to win or die,
So give a hokie, hokie, hokie, hii!

Eoline Swing

Eolines, Eolines, we love you,
We know you are the only ones.
For the green and the gold,
It will never grow old,
Watch our step! See our "pep"!
Eolines, Eolines, Eolines, Eolines,
Eolines, Eolines, we love you,
And to you we will all be true,
So rah! rah! rah! rah! rah! rah!
Rah! rah! rah! rah! rah! rah!
Rah! rah! rah! rah!
Oh, by Jiminy——
Eolines, Eolines, we love you!

Harrisonian Song

Oh, let us keep our colors flying,
And fling our banner high,
We're winning when we're trying,
And we're going to try.
We'll tell the world, girls,
Our crowd is the best;
So, come, let us cheer for old H. L. S.
We'll go to the battle and fight till we win,
And then watch us do it all over again.
Three cheers for success—
That's the spirit of H. L. S.

When the new girl entered Intermont, she did not feel lonesome because her "Big Sister" was at the front door to meet her, and tell her everything she wanted to know. The Little Store has been a popular place this year. There have been many inspiring speakers, and interesting programs, and a general spirit of fellowship has been felt in school.

Resume of Athletics

A review of athletics for the year, 1924-'25, reveals a most successful one. A hearty interest was shown in basket-ball, swimming, hiking and tennis.

Quite a large number of girls tried out for basket-ball and as a result the games were full of life and enthusiasm. Hiking clubs were organized and great interest was taken in this phase of athletics. Swimming and tennis formed a large part of the "sports" at Intermont.

Miss Nunnally, physical director; Miss Carbajal, basket-ball coach; and Miss Pflug, swimming instructor, are to a large extent responsible for our success.

FEE. D' MY HEART

Swimming Song

This grand old school has a swimming pool,
As fine as it can be,
And the maidens all in the spring and fall,
In its balmy depths you'll see.
When warm breezes blow, melting ice and snow,
To the pool each afternoon
Come the timid maid and the unafraid,
Each with a different tune:

(Timid Maid)

"I'm afraid to dive into the deep, deep water,
I'm afraid it might come higher than my chin;
I'm afraid that I might fall and hit the bottom

And never, never more come up again.
I'm afraid, you know, the water it might drown me,
Now I know I'm just a timid little maid,
I'd like to swim and dive,
But I'd rather stay alive;
So really, truly, honest, I'm afraid."

(Vain Maid)

"I'm afraid to dive into the wet, wet water,
I'm afraid 'twill take the curl out of my hair,
I'm afraid 'twill wash off all the paint and powder,
And leave me with a damp, dishevelled air.
I'm afraid 'twill spoil my bathing suit of satin,
Now I know I'm just a foolish little maid;
I'd like to swim, you bet,
But if I must get wet,
Then really, truly, honest, I'm afraid."

(Bold Maid)

"I adore to take a high dive from the spring board,
I adore to turn a back flip in the air,
I adore to swim beneath the shining water,
I don't give a rip what happens to my hair;
I'd adore to swim across the English Channel,
For I'm such a bold and daring little maid,
I can swim and dive, you bet,
Even better than Annette,
So I'd like to know why I should be afraid."

Jokes

JOKES

THE RANDOM SHOT

I shot an arrow into the air,
It fell in the distance I know not where,
Till a neighbor said it killed his calf
And I had to pay him six and a half.
I bought some poison to slay some rats,
And a neighbor swore it killed his cats,
And rather than argue across the fence,
I paid him four dollars and fifty cents.
One night I set sailing a toy balloon,
And hoped it would soar till it reached the moon,
But the candle fell on a farmer's straw,
And he said I must settle or go to law.
And that is the way with the random shot;
It never hits in the proper spot.
And the joke you spring that you think so smart,
May leave a wound in some fellow's heart.

PEG RUE—"I've lost a lot of weight this winter."
SUZANNE D.—"I don't see it."
PEG RUE—"Why no, how could you; I've lost it."

LOIS D.—"I'm losing my mind."
RUTH H.—"What makes you think so?"
LOIS D.—"I can't remember what I was worrying about."

WILMA C.—"Do you ever have nightmares?"
NINETTE H.—"No, I never get to sleep in time."

BETTY ALEX—"What do you think Sir Walter Raleigh said when he placed his cloak at Queen Elizabeth's feet?"
DOROTHY STAFF—"Step on it, kid, step on it."

SARAH GIB—"I saw a movie last night in which President Coolidge was the leading man."
GLADYS HAMM—"Really! What was its name?"
SARAH GIB—"Pathe News."

FOND MOTHER—"Peggy, what are you going to do for a living?"
PEGGY MOZO—"Write."
FOND MOTHER—"Write what?"
PEGGY MOZO—"Home."

ANSWERED

It was the end of the scene; the heroine was starving. "Bread!" she cried. "Give me bread", and then the curtain came down with a role."

What would Dr. Noffsinger be without his attitude?

Beast First—"What's your roommate like?"
Beast Second—"Everything I got."

Lucile Dudley, knocking at girl's room—"Are you Elizabeth McGroarty?"
Elizabeth, meekly—"No, I'm my roommate."

Bobs Taylor at fishing had hooked a very small trout, and had wound it in until it was rammed against the end of the rod.
Bobs—"What do I do now?"
Miss Kent—"Climb up the rod and stab it."

Elizabeth Spencer—"I can't get this 'rithmetic example. Miss Stoddard said something 'bout finding the great common divisor."
Palmira C, in disgust—"Great Scott! Haven't they found that thing yet? Why, they were hunting for it when I was here four years ago."

Monna Handy—"Do you want a room?"
Saucy New Girl—"No, I want to disguise myself as a banana and sleep in the fruit dish."

Miss Burris—"Some of the girls here seem to think that spoons are a sort of medicine—to be taken after meals."

IN A FRESHMAN'S EYES

A Senior stood on a railroad track,
The train was coming fast;
The train got off the railroad track
And let the Senior pass.

Life Savers—"Do you know, Betty, that before she goes under a drowning woman thinks of all the things she's done that she never ought to have done?"
Betty—"You needn't worry, Bud, they'd have heaps of time to rescue you."

Cay Talbott—"Did you ever hear about the little duckling?"
Annabelle H.—"No."
Cay Talbott—"Well, he just cried and cried 'cause his first little pair o' pants were down."

Dorothy Whitehead—"I want a dress the very latest style."
Salesman—"Will you please be seated, ma'am? The fashion is just changing."

Kathleen Propst—"Quick, call Mrs. Wells. I drank some ink by mistake."
Elizabeth Spencer—"Oh, that's nothing. Just eat some blotting paper."

Miss Hubbell—"What's the difference between "I have hired a taxi", and "I will hire a taxi?'"
Virginia B.—"About twenty-five cents."

Frances Roberts—"Teachers are worse than immigration authorities at Ellis Island nowadays."
V. Collings—"How come?"
Frances Roberts—"They've swiped the slogan, 'They shall not pass.'"

Now I sit me down to sleep,
I hope my chum my notes will keep.

Virginia Andrews—"Dear Lord, I ask for nothing for myself, only give mother a son-in-law."

Mrs. Murrell—"Ernestine, don't you know that you have broken the eighth commandment by stealing the bread from the table?"
Ernestine Tal—"Well, I might just as well break the eighth and have the bread as to break the tenth and only covet it."

Bang—"I have an idea."
Margaret S.—"Be good to it. It's in a strange place."

Miss Egbert—"Why is a giraffe's neck so long?"
Mary F. Royster—"Because its head is such a long way from its body."

Mrs. Murrell—"Did you go to the pictures alone?"
Skinny Foster—"Yes, Mrs. Murrell."
Mrs. Murrell—"Then how does it happen you left here with an umbrella and came back with a cane?"

Palmira—"You seem to be very bright and I suppose you have a very good place in your classes."
Frances Burnette—"O yes, I sit right by the radiator."

Friend (the morning after)—"How did you sleep last night?"
Frosh—"Fine until the floor slid out from under my bed."

WHERE THERE'S A WILL—

Mr. Fox got up on the scales to weigh, and found he had fallen off. He got up again.

If a body sees a body
Flunkin' in a quiz,
If a body helps a body,
Is it teacher's biz?"

Lois Hale—"What's the difference in a girl chewing her gum and a cow chewing her cud?"

Louise Bowers—"I don't know, what?"

Lois Hale—"The cow looks thoughtful."

THE OUTLINE OF LOVE

Grade School—
Roses ith red,
Violets ith blue,
Sugar ith sweet
And tho ith oo.

High School—
Chrysanthemums are beautiful,
And so is marmalade;
Without you, darling Gwendolyn,
My life is a dead night-shade.

University—
The moon is silver-sheathed,
As you, my golden symphone,
'Tis you I crave to wed,
My agonizing ecstacy!

Ten Years Wed—
I have a knife,
Its blade is true;
For thirty cents
I'd murder you.

Martha Flowers—"How long did the drug make Juliet sleep?"

Miss Hubbell—"Forty-two hours."

Martha Flowers—"I don't think that's right. The book said two and forty hours."

Mr. Noffsinger—"Why are you always late to class?"
Virginia Stover—"Because of a sign I have to pass on my way here."
Mr. Noffsinger—"What has that to do with it?"
Virginia Stover—"Why, it says, 'School ahead! Go slow!'"

"Frankie" Martin (after gesticulating and violently trying to prove her point in an argument)—"You all may think I'm crazy, but I'm going to prove it."

Phoebe B.—"Do you snore in your sleep?"
Evelyn Gill—"When do you suppose?"

Miss McCoy—"Who defeated the Israelites?"
Mentora B.—"I don't know. I seldom follow any of these bush league teams."

Miss McCoy—"Leon, what is a niche in a church?"
Leon Daniel—"It's just the same as an itch anywhere else, only you can't scratch it as well."

The Hill Serenaders had just finished playing "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia", when Mr. Schroetter was seen weeping in a corner. Mrs. Murrell on going over to him, inquired sympathetically—"Why, what's the matter? Are you a Virginian that this music affects you so?"
Mr. Schroetter—"No, I'm a musician."

Ella Mary A.—"Why in the world don't you bob your hair?"
Dalla O.—"Well, I just can't decide whether I want it to look like a whisk broom or a feather duster."

Sermon—"Kissing—Is it sane and sanitary?"
Solo—"Tell mother I'll be there."

Maxie Marrs—"I wish Miss Pflug would walk slower when we go on hikes."
Mabel Hahne—"Why?"
Maxie Marrs—"So I could look at the country."

Lives of Seniors all remind us,
We should make our lives sublime,
And by asking foolish questions
Take up recitation time.

Miss Henry—"When did Caesar defeat the greatest number?"
Ida Shepp—"I think on examination day."

Gee! but my roomie is a wonderful girl! She shuts my windows in the mornings, she presses my clothes, supplies me with cash. O, she's a wonderful girl! But, ssh! Just between us two—I room alone.

Edna Lois George—"I'm afraid, Bessie, that I'll never see you in Heaven."
Bessie Gardner—"What have you been doing now?"

Bystander—"I observe that you treat that gentleman very respectfully."
Mr. Noffsinger—"Yes, he's one of our early settlers."
Bystander—"Early settler? Why, he's not more than forty years of age."
Mr. Noffsinger—"That may be true, but he pays his bills on the first of every month."

A woodpecker lit on a Freshman's head,
And settled down to peck.
He pecked away for half a day,
And then he broke his neck.

"Thank you so much for your song, my dear," said Miss Sweeney when Mildred Horn had finished her solo. "It took me back to my childhood days and while I listened to your voice, I seemed to hear the old gate creaking in the wind."

"Where are you going, my pretty maid?"
"I'm going to sneeze, sir," she said.
"At who? At who? At who? he said.
"At choo! at choo! at choo!" said she.

Miss Hubbell—"That was a rare theme you handed in yesterday."
Mary Davis—"In what way was it rare?"
Miss Hubbell—"Not well done."

He who thinks these jokes are poor
Would straightway change his views,
Could he compare the jokes we print
With those we do not use.

"A Line Worth Going Out of Your Way to See"

The value of an institution to a community is measured by the service it renders

Service as applied to a department store must have a very broad meaning—must cover its entire field of operation, from the planning and buying of the right merchandise to final delivery to customer. To serve in a manner most beneficial has ever been our aim, which has been responsible for constant growth for more than a third of a century.

CANDYLAND, The Home of Sweets

Home-Made Candy and Ice Cream

Now we come to the end of our book,
The end of this year in our life;
But to us it is more than the word,
It is mingled of joys and of strife.

We have done to the best of our skill;
We depart to begin our career,
And leave to those taking our place,
The trials of a Senior next year.

But those trials, be they many or few,
May the strength that they might be quelled
Be given that your goals may be won,
And our loved Alma Mater upheld.
